Get hands-on with engineering and make a real impact!

Explore different fields of engineering, meet inspiring role models, and test your creativity in our brand-new Engineering Design Challenge, where you and your team tackle fun, real-world problems. Discover how engineers change lives and imagine your own future in engineering!

Jump into our adaptable toy design activity, where you'll solder, assemble, and create toys that help children with disabilities—while learning about person-centered design and assistive technology.
